John,

A suggestion for tomorrow. Slide 12 alludes to the status of the PM ISA. It might be worth spending a minute there giving David a heads up about where we stand. At least to give him, from our perspective, what we've done to address concerns that were raised by OAR at the previous joint briefing. The you'll hopefully be able to say we've scheduled a repeat of that briefing for next week for your benefit, before getting the go ahead to move the assessment along.

I say all of this because David will be talking to Clint sometime this week, and it would be good for him to get our perspective on the separation between the ISA and the policy documents, and how we've added text to be responsive.

I'll confirm in the morning with Jennifer, but I'm hoping that we get this on the books Tuesday next week. I'll keep you posted through tomorrow morning.

-Lou
